

GENERAL

1. The “All Aboard Rewards Program” is the title given to the members’ loyalty program of the Pine Beach Hotel and the Beachmere Hotel hereafter referred to as the Hotel or Hotels.
2. The “All Aboard Rewards Program” is open to current financial members of the Hotels who have received their All Aboard Rewards Card.
3. The program operates independently at each Hotel and benefits are not transferrable across the different Hotels.
4. All current financial members are opted-in to the “All Aboard Rewards Program”.
5. Members can choose to opt-out of the “All Aboard Rewards Program” by writing to management of the Hotel.
6. In the instance that a member’s card is lost, stolen, damaged, or misused it is the responsibility of that member to inform the Hotel.
7. The Hotels and their managers does not accept liability for any theft, loss, or misuse of any loyalty card and/or their respective loyalty benefits.
 - a. The cost of a replacement loyalty card is $3.00.
 - b. Management reserve the right to waive the cost of replacing that card in mitigating circumstances.
8. The Hotels are not responsible for any Point-of-Sale (POS) terminal and/or Electronic Gaming Machine (EGM) malfunction that may cause members to not receive their respective loyalty benefits.
9. It is the responsibility of the member to provide a Hotel team member with their loyalty card when purchasing anything from a POS terminal. Certain loyalty benefits can only be processed before any POS sales are finalised.
10. It is the responsibility of the member to ensure their loyalty card is correctly inserted into the card reader at an EGM.
11. It is the responsibility of the member to ensure their contact details are correct to receive notifications about various offers and benefits issued through the “All Aboard Rewards Program”.
 - a. If a member is listed as ‘Hold Mail Yes’ or opted-out for any forms of communication, they may not receive particular offers or benefits associated with the “All Aboard Rewards Program” and are not entitled to have any offers or benefits backdated in the instance their communication preferences are updated.
12. The Hotels reserve the right to take action to protect a members’ loyalty card and/or adjust loyalty benefit balances resulting from system malfunction, operator error, and/or fraud.
 - a. This can include but is not limited to making a loyalty card temporarily inactive in the instance we suspect a loyalty card is in use whilst a member is not present at a venue to protect any loyalty and/or gaming balances.
13. If a member cannot attend the Hotels due to not being able to meet the minimum entry requirements, then they are not entitled to receive the benefits forthwith. These entry requirements include but are not limited to:
 - a. Approved identification
 - b. Dress standards
 - c. Complying with Government mandates
 - d. Signs of intoxication
14. The Hotels reserve the right to adjust a member’s loyalty benefits and/or tier level status based on inactivity and/or general conduct issues within the Hotels at managements absolute discretion.
15. The Hotels reserve the right to adjust the rates and manner of which loyalty benefits are earned without notice.
16. The Hotels reserves the right to allocate additional loyalty benefits at the discretion of management.
17. It is the responsibility of the member to inform the Hotel of any changes to their personal details, and in the instances where the Hotel isn’t informed, promotional offers from the Hotels will not be reissued.

18. The Hotels are committed on working to minimise problem gambling. If gambling is a problem for you, ask to speak to one of our Customer Liaison Officers (CLO's), or contact a Gambling helpline.
19. The Hotels are not liable for any loss or damage whatsoever which is suffered, including but not limited to indirect or consequential loss, or for personal injury suffered or sustained as a result of taking the prize, except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law.
20. The Hotels and its management reserve the right to decide any matter or settle any dispute arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection to the "All Aboard Rewards Program" and our decision on any such matter or dispute will be final and binding; and no correspondence will be entered into.
21. The promoters are the Hotels care of either The Pine Beach Hotel (3/5 Granville St, Emu Park QLD 4710) or The Beachmere Hotel (2 James Rd, Beachmere QLD 4510).

ALL ABOARD REWARDS PROGRAM TIER LEVELS & TIER CREDITS

22. The "All Aboard Rewards Program" has five (5) tier levels, each with differing loyalty benefits.
23. Tier credits are used by the Hotels to define a member's tier level in the "All Aboard Rewards Program". The number of tier credits that a member accrues will indicate their tier level.
24. A member's tier credits balance is accrued during a 3-month tiering period which are set as the following:
 - a. January, February, & March
 - b. April, May, & June
 - c. July, August, & September
 - d. October, November, & December
25. At the beginning of each tiering period, a member's tier level will be based on their activity in the preceding tiering period, and their tier credits balance will start at zero (0).
26. Tier credits are not visible at point-of-sale terminals.
 - a. Tier credits are visible on the kiosks to members by selecting the "My Rewards" tab on the kiosk once their loyalty card has swiped. This will show the member their current tier credits and the tier credits they will require to:
 - i. Retain their current tier level.
 - ii. Upgrade to a higher tier level.
 - b. A member can also request a balance at any time from a venue team member.
27. The Hotels and its management reserve the right to be able to present and/or communicate a member's progression or regression in the "All Aboard Rewards Program" in a method that the Hotels and its management deem appropriate. In most instances this will be via E-Mail or SMS, so being opted-in for communication is necessary to receive these updates.
28. Tier credits are earned at the rate of one (1) tier credit for every $1.00 spent on any purchase through a point-of-sale terminal such as food, beverage or retail through our bottleshops.
29. Tier credits are earned at the rate of one (1) tier credit for every $10.00 of play on an EGM whilst a member's card is correctly inserted. Play being defined as "turnover" which is the credits played on an EGM or the total value of "bets".
30. All current financial members will commence at the Deck Hand level, and progress dependent on their current tier credits balance.
31. It is the responsibility of the individual member to ensure that all qualifying purchases and gaming play are conducted using the individual member's All Aboard Rewards Card to ensure that the correct number of tier credits are applied to their balance.
32. Members with a tier credits balance of zero (0) to four-hundred and ninety-nine (499) will be placed in the Deck Hand tier level.
33. Members with a tier credits balance of five hundred (500) to four-thousand, nine-hundred and ninety-nine (4999) will be placed in the Bosun tier level.

34. Members with a tier credits balance of five thousand (5000) to nine-thousand, nine-hundred and ninety-nine (9999) will be placed in the First Mate tier level.
35. Members with a tier credits balance of ten thousand (10000) to nineteen-thousand, nine-hundred and ninety-nine (19999) will be placed in the Captain tier level.
36. Members with a tier credits balance of twenty thousand (20000) and above will be placed in the Admiral tier level.
37. The highest tier level that a member activates during a tiering period will be retained in the subsequent season. For example, if a member accrues enough tier credits to be First Mate from January to March, they will begin as First Mate in the April to June period.
38. If a member accrues enough tier credits to upgrade to a higher level, they will be automatically upgraded to that tier level and begin to accrue the benefits associated with that level.
39. If a member does not accrue enough tier credits to retain their current tier level, for example they are First Mate but accrue 4000 tier credits during a tiering period, they will only be downgraded on the 1st day of the next tiering period.
40. The Hotels reserve the right to adjust the rate, manner, and duration of which tier credits are earned without notice.
41. The Hotels reserves the right to add tier credits to a member's tier credits balance at the discretion of management.

COMPASS CASH (POINTS)

42. All current financial members of the Hotels can earn Compass Cash.
43. Compass Cash equates to the purchasing power or cash available to current financial members across the Hotels.
44. Examples of what Compass Cash equates to in terms of cash are as follows:
